No to my four legged friend?

I've been living in a sectional title complex for about two months. I have a small Yorkshire Terrier that stays with me and remains inside my sectional title unit during the day when I'm at work. She doesn't bother anyone and is always quiet. When I decided to buy my unit in the complex I heard that dogs were allowed. Now the body corporate has informed me that I don't have permission to keep a dog and warned me to remove my dog. I understand that rules are rules, but is there nothing I can do?

Help! My competitor is stealing my customers!

Just over two years ago I purchased a brand agency and included a restraint of trade clause in the sale agreement preventing the seller from also opening up a brand company in the same region. Now just over two years later, the seller has opened up another brand company in direct competition to me and is actively canvassing my clients to move to his company. I paid him for his company and now he is trying to take away my customers. Is there anything I can do to stop him?
