KIDS CARING FOR THE EARTH

EnviroKids magazine subscription form

2014 marked 35 years of EnviroKids – WESSA’s award-winning publication. EnviroKids is an invaluable, reusable educational resource for children, parents and teachers interested in the environment, wildlife and environmental issues. Children are wonderful ambassadors for the environment, and many take what they learn into their homes and communities.

EnviroKids magazines are full of amazing facts and fun activities that promote more sustainable lifestyles and caring for the Earth. Each issue has a different theme and supports the National curriculum, making EnviroKids a perfect source of ideas and information for school projects. Most readers keep their magazines as a reference library.

Special offer R150 for 4 issues

To subscribe to EnviroKids and receive a colourful, thematic magazine each quarter for one year, please complete the application form below and send it with proof of payment via post, fax or email to:
